DUTY BEFORE TAFT

Turing What, have you started a 15 HE FOR THE PEOPLE OR THE TARIFF BARONS!

> President Must Soon Make Choice That Will Show the Country Where He Stands-People Demand He Keep Faith.

All signs point to a parting of the ways between the administrative and legislative branches of the federal government on the tariff bison,

The home of representatives will onsider no amendments to the Payne bill except from the ways and means committee, and on no schedules exopt those affecting lumber, hides, bar ley and mait.

This leaves the tariff in the hands of the senate, and control of the senate in the interests of eastern tariff barona is notorious.

The position of President Taft is unequivocal. He pledged himself during the late presidential campaign to gennine downward tariff revision in the interests of American consumers. Congress, on the other hand; has been whipped to the task of revision like a refuctant schoolboy.

Will the tariff overlords, who have long controlled congress, he able again to make tariff revision a farce, so far as consumers are concerned?

President Taff will probably have to answer this question. There is littie prospect that the New England senators will experience a change of heart before the Payne bill is manmied to soit the wishes of their trust owners. The people of America, on the basis of past experience, expect no voluntary concessions on the senate's part in the way of lower tariff taxes

But the Taff veto is a reserve sheet anchor. President Taft may have to take a decided stand between the New England tariff idea and the hopes and demands of the great body of American consumers. It may be z turning point in the early days of his adminis-comes to him for signature President Taft can declare his position with such emphasis that its framers will be less bold and arrogant. It is only a few days since the president's uncompromising stand forced the lower branch of congress to readopt rules that would expedite the tariff meas-Administration influence is allpowerful, when exercised with lact and discretion.

President Taft should make it as any tariff bill that puts new burdens is partly due to the American people's reduce these tariff burdens.

Keep faith with the people, Presi-

A Free Breakfast Table.

Tariff for revenue is one thing; tariff for plunder is another. Protection is the most dishonest system ever enacted by which poor people are made to pay the burden of taxation. Why in the name of reason is any protection needed on coffee, tea, cocoa and sugar? Are there any coffee, tea or cocoa plantations which will be forced into bankruptcy if coffee, tea and cocoa are let in free? These articles of food are used by nearly every individual in the United States. They ought to be within the reach of every one.

Why not run the government on a business basis and "make ends meet?" A reduction in expenditures and an increase in receipts, a low "tariff for revenue only," would correct all the troubles of deficiency, and an economical administration would not do business on "bond money."

If there are any reasons why the prosperous and affluent should not pay the expenses of the government, then there are reasons why no government at all would be better than the one under the present conditions, where poverty carries the load and wealth reaps the harvest.

Let Us Have It Right,

on of Nelson W. Aldrich."

POLITICAL FUTURE AT STAKE

President Taft Has Real Cause for Anxiety Over Result of Tariff Revision.

The McKinley tariff cost the Repub leans the Pifty second congress and the subsequent presidential election in The Wilson tariff plus the repeal of the Sherman act cost the Democrats the Fifty-fourth congress and helped bring about the conditions which left the party split in 1896 and have kept is divided ever since.

The Dingley tariff would have cost the Republicana the Fifty-sixth congress but for the war with Spain. Asit was, the Republican majority in the o the political consequences of the Payne revision.

Ask the average member of congress what he thinks of the political prospects of the Taft administration and he will answer about in this fashion: "The Roosevelt here worship era are generally distrustful of Taft and think he is a reactionary. confidently expect that the Republicans will lose the next house as a result of tariff revision. Recovered will return from Africa when Taft's political fortunes are at low cbb, and all his faithful followers will hall him as the true leader of the party. If the house goes Democratic they will denounce Tarr na a failure, and shrick for Roesevelt in 1912 as the only presideutial candidate who can save the party from defeat. Taft's political future hinges upon two things—a revi-sion of the tariff that will satisfy the country as fairly honest and just, and an immediate return of prosperity.

Political gessip may be entirely mistaken as to the plans and hopes of the Roosevelt element, but there can be no doubt that Mr. Tatt's friends are worrying over the situation and that the president himself keenly appreciates the necessity of a revision of the tariff that will meet the expectations of that clusive person who figures in the house debate as "the ultimate consumer.

Mr. Taft has probably had as few real troubles as any president ever had in the first days of his administration, but he is slowly approaching the critical period which will determine whether he is to have a united party back of him, or whether the histody of the Harrison administration, in a way, is to repeat itself.

The Way Toward Tariff Reform

The Philadelphia Inquirer-stiff protectionist-is in favor of hurrying clear as can be that he will not sign through the present tariff to almost any conclusion, and then letting it be on American consumers. His election the last tariff that is ever enacted by way of general revision. It thinks confidence in his sincere purpose to that as the house committee has had its say the senate will have its, and then will come the conference committee, and therefore there is no need for a long debate, but that the best thing for business and all else is to adopt the law as soon as possible. Then it goes on to say:

"And let this be the last general revision of the tariff for all time. House committees and senate committees can not satisfy the public. That is proved beyond all question. There is but one sensible way to deal with the tariff. Let us have a commission of experts who will devote their entire attention to the study of conditions throughout the world and the relation of these conditions with business in the United States.

"Could the ways and means commit tee, through such a commission, be put in possession of all facts concerning any specified tariff schedule it could treat that particular schedule as occasion should warrant and that one alone. Under such a policy there could never be a general business upheaval That is the only scientific way to deal with the tariff."

It is the old story of robbing Peter to pay Paul. First the tin-plate makers are solaced with a protective tariff. Then the export canners are comforted by remitting the tariff, to the injury of the tin-plate men. And now the long-suffering taxpayer is asked to go into his pocket for ready each with which to make good the in jury. Will he do it?

Let Me omething

A woman who is sick and suffering, and won't at least try a medicine which has the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, is to blame for her own wretched

There are literally hundreds of thousands of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over thirty years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering.

Read what these women say:

Camden, N. J. — "It is with pleasure that I send my testimonial for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, hoping it may induce other suffering women to avail themselves of the benefit of this valuable remedy.

"I suffered from pains in my back and side, sick headaches, no appetite, was tired and nervous all the time, and so weak I could hardly stand. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman—and this valuable medicine shall always have my praise."—Mrs. W. P. Valentine, 902 Lincoln Ave., Camden, N. J.

Erie, Pa.—"I suffered for five years from female troubles, and at last was almost helpless. I tried three doctors but they did me no good. My sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has made me well and strong. I hope all suffering women will just give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, for it is worth its weight in gold."—Mrs. J. P. Endlich, R. F. D. 7, Erie, Pa.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering from the same trouble.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for her advice—it is free and always helpful.
